H. H. Langton, Esq.,

University of Toronto Library.

Dear Mr. Langton:

I have not yet spoken to Mr. Lash about the proposal of endowing a sermon or course of sermons. I must apologise for having overlooked it. He is to be out of town this week, but I expect to see him at the beginning of next week and will ask his opinion.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Mr. Langton:

I am going to Ottawa on Friday and expect to have a number of hours on the train. Would it be too great a breach of your regulations to allow me to take with me the October number of the Rhetort Journal and the October issue of the Quarterly and the Edinburgh Review. I expect to be back by Sunday morning at the latest.

Yours sincerely,

President.

P. P. Langton, Esq.,

Librarian.

Dear Mr. President:

I enclose draft of the Isabel Field Endowment Trust Agreement, which the Executor of their Estate asks to have substituted for the previous draft, as you will see from his letter attached. I have told him that I am sending it to you.

Yours faithfully,

H.H. Langton
